INTERNATIONALISATION

The amount of international students in our programmes is growing and we want to support them. GLV Idun has a dispuut for international students and internationally inclined native students called Gentium. This dispuut together with the board is organizing events promoting the international awareness of our members, assisting new international students with practical issues like finding housing or opening a Dutch bank account, and overall supports the integration of international students within our association. If you're an international student, make sure to also check our international brochure on our website.

This usually takes about 48 hours (weekends not included). When a book is out of stock, it will take longer. In case the books are much later than 48 hours, check your track-and-trace code to see where the book is. If this doesn't work, you can always mail to board@idun.nl.
